

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

The Constitution of the School Sisters of Notre Dame, You Are Sent, #17, invites a radical living of gospel justice. In accord with church teaching and directives, we work actively, especially in our local situations, to eliminate the root causes of injustice in order to realize a world of peace, justice, and love. To confront injustice credibly requires that we ourselves act justly. (YAS,1986)

The theme of the 2024 Women's Leadership Luncheon is Women as Peacemakers in a Fractured World of Violence. School Sisters of Notre Dame are committed to a more just and peaceful world. Our commitment to just peace offers a vision and an ethic to build peace as well as to prevent, defuse, and heal the damage of violent conflict. We aim to promote a culture of life and oneness with all creation.

You are cordially invited to be a sponsor for the 2024 Women's Leadership Luncheon at the Brookhaven Country Club. Your sponsorship will help those who attend gain insight and learn more about the good work peacemakers are doing in our community and provide resources needed to sustain our active ministries and care for our sisters long-term needs. In sponsoring this event, you will have the opportunity to promote your organization or business, network, and recognize women who are peacemakers at home and in the workplace. A variety of sponsorship levels are available. The following pages outline sponsorship levels and benefits associated with each level.

The School Sisters of Notre Dame are grateful to our Presenting Sponsor, Ann Kampeter, for her longstanding friendship and support. Thanks to the generosity of our sponsors, this event continues to be free for all attendees.

Join us for the 2024 Women's Leadership Luncheon. Learn from women leaders and be empowered to make a difference. The School Sisters of Notre Dame believe that everyone has a gift to share with the world!

We look forward to your sponsorship of the SSND Women's Leadership Luncheon. Thank you for supporting women leaders in our community.

SPEAKER:
JUDGE ADA BROWN

United State District Court Judge, Northern District of Texas

Judge Ada Brown began her legal career as a prosecutor with the Dallas County District Attorney's office, where she was promoted to chief prosecutor. She was chief prosecutor of four different courts. Judge Brown prosecuted felony crimes such as rape, robbery and murder before specializing in the prosecution of drug crimes and internet crimes against children. She brought hundreds of pedophiles to justice.

During her tenure as an assistant district attorney, Judge Brown tried over 130 jury trials to verdict as lead prosecutor and tried approximately 100 bench trials to verdict as lead prosecutor. She also prosecuted about 500 internet crimes against children. In 2005, Judge Brown was one of 2.5% of Texas attorneys under 40 by Super Lawyers magazine.

In 2005, Judge Brown was appointed as judge over Dallas county's oldest criminal trial court; She was the youngest sitting trial court judge in Texas. As a trial court judge, Judge Brown tried approximately 50 jury trials to verdict and about 100 bench trials to verdict.

After leaving the bench, Judge Brown joined the law firm of McKool Smith, where she focused on high-stakes patent infringement and complex commercial litigation cases. In 2012 and 2013, Brown was one of 2.5% of attorneys under 40 in Texas selected by Super Lawyers magazine as a Rising Star.

In 2013, she was appointed to serve on the Fifth District Court of Appeals, Texas's busiest appellate court, she was the youngest sitting appellate justice in Texas. During her six-year term as a state appellate judge, she authored over 545 majority opinions on the merits. Her appellate reversal rate on the state appellate court was 0.73%. She was reversed just four times by a higher court during her six-year term as a state appellate judge.

In September 2018, she was appointed as the first African-American woman district court judge in the Northern District of Texas. She is also one of just six Native -American federal judges in the nation and is the first Choctaw woman judge in American history. In her three years on the federal bench, she has resolved 880 civil and criminal cases, and has a 0.6% reversal rate. In the first Dallas Bar Association poll in which she was evaluated as a federal judge, she was the highest rated district court judge in impartiality.
